

PRIVACY NOTICE – PUBLIC SPACES PROTECTION ORDER AT SHEPHERDS SCHOOL, MILL END

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT?

Three Rivers District Council is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information.

This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about you for the purposes of enforcing the Public Spaces Protection Order (PSPO) around Shepherd School in Mill End

Three Rivers District Council is a “data controller”. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

We will comply with data protection legislation. This says that the personal information we hold about you must be:

1. Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
2. Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
3. Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
4. Accurate and kept up to date.
5. Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
6. Kept securely.

THE KIND OF INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

In order to enforce the Public Spaces Protection Order, we will collect, store, and use the following categories of personal information about you:

- Personal contact details – name, address, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses
- Car registration, make and model, registered keeper details (name and address), insured driver details (name and address)
- Date, time and location of vehicle and description of driver and other passengers when the breach of the PSPO occurred.

- Any statement provided by a driver to an enforcement officer under caution.

HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about drivers breaching the PSPO through enforcement officers patrolling the area, writing down observations, speaking to offenders, and through information requests from the DVLA based on observed vehicle registration details. We also collect information received from third parties where they report an alleged breach of the PSPO.

HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to.

The lawful basis for processing your personal data will be:

- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation

The situations in which we will process your personal information are listed below.

- To investigate the breach of the PSPO, and to take enforcement action either through the application of a Fixed Penalty Notice or prosecution through the courts. We need all the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to perform our legal powers to enforce the Public Spaces Protection Order under the Anti-Social Behaviour Crime and Disorder Act 2014.
- To issue a fixed penalty notice for breach of the PSPO.
- To issue a court summons for breach of the PSPO.
- To investigate and identify the driver of a vehicle that has breached the PSPO.
- To record statements given by you under caution for a breach of the PSPO.
- To investigate claims of exemption for the breach of the PSPO.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may investigate your identity through information requests within our legal powers from the DVLA and Hertfordshire Constabulary. We may also request information from Shepherd Primary School, Daybreak Nursery or the Family/Children Centre.

DATA SHARING

We will share your personal information with third parties where required by law, or where it is necessary to investigate or prosecute the breach of the PSPO

Your personal information may be shared with and processed by:

- DVLA
- Hertfordshire Constabulary
- Magistrates' Court
- Shepherd School
- Rickmansworth Family Centre
- Daybreak Nursery

All of the Council's third-party service providers are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal information for their own purposes and they may only process your personal information for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

DATA SECURITY

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees and third parties who have a business need to process it. Third parties will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

Your personal data is held on a secure server at the Council's office and on a secure server hosted by a systems provider in the United Kingdom and/or European Union.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

DATA RETENTION

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal information, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

Your personal information will be retained for a period of 2 years from the date of the alleged breach of the PSPO

RIGHTS OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE, AND RESTRICTION

Your duty to inform us of changes

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes.

Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.

- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal information, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the Data Protection Officer in writing.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Data Protection Officer. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

The Council's Data Protection Officer (DPO) is responsible for overseeing compliance with this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice or how we handle your personal information, please contact the DPO – see www.threerivers.gov.uk/dataprotection for details.

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY NOTICE

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.
