The Council sometimes needs information about people other than the person who has applied for a benefit or service to work out what that person is entitled to. For example, where a person makes a claim for Universal Credit, we need information about other people who live in the same household to work out how much the person will be paid

Who do we share your information with?

We never make your personal details available to companies outside of Three Rivers District Council for marketing purposes, although our representatives may hold your data so that your details and/or order can be processed and/or account maintained, or for the recovery of outstanding monies.

Information held by the Revenues & Benefits is used by other departments of Three Rivers District Council to enable them to undertake their statutory duties where the law allows it. We will not disclose with anyone else without appropriate permission, unless we have a legal reason to do so. For example disclosure may be necessary to prevent or detect crime.

We will obtain other information about you from third parties and give information to them to:

- make sure the information is accurate

- prevent, detect and prosecute fraud
- protect public funds
- recover debts owed to the council
- match the information you provide with other information we hold about you whether provided to us by you, or anyone else. We may also obtain other information about you from third parties and give information to them to:
- make sure the information is accurate
- prevent, detect and prosecute fraud
- protect public funds.

These third parties include:

- Government Departments for verification of benefits, detection and prevention of fraud and request to attach overpaid housing benefit to welfare benefits, to submit appeals against housing benefit/council tax support and valuation office agency
- HMRC to obtain employment details
- Enforcement Agents, previously known as Bailiffs
