

Candidate and Election Agent Briefing

Local Elections - 4 May 2023

In preparation for the elections on Thursday, 4th May 2023, there will be an online briefing session for prospective candidates, who are considering standing for election, and their election agents.

The briefing session will be held virtually on 20 March 2023 at 5pm

It will cover the following:

- election timetable
- qualifications
- disqualifications
- nominations
- appointment of election, polling and counting agents
- postal votes
- counting of votes
- candidates' expenses

If you are thinking of standing as a candidate, particularly if you are new to the nomination and elections process, you are strongly urged to attend the briefing session which will last for approximately one hour.

If you wish to attend please email your details, including your name and email address, to julie.prestidge@threerivers.gov.uk before 12noon on 20 March 2023.

You will then be emailed a link to the briefing session.
